Jody Kennedy International Report on baby Grace Clark and more

May 3, 2010

Thank you for your prayers! Baby Grace had something of a breakthrough today. The ECMO machine has been removed and Grace's heart is doing all the work on its own. She will be observed over the next hours, but the expectation is that she will continue to gain strength and her heart will handle the load for her body. For the best information take a look at a fabulous web site to which you can return again and again to learn the latest news on Grace.

Keep praying!

Adopt a Puppet Results

God's people faithfully responded to our need and we have received almost exactly what is needed to pay for the sound system, the puppet stage and the puppets themselves.

Inspired by the testimony of one of our missionaries, individuals at Centerpoint in Burleson, Texas gave a generously. The rest came from individuals who desire to share in our work through their financial gifts.

Regardless, God gets all the glory and credit for moving in his people to help us take his message of hope and life to the lost world.

The new puppets are being ordered and will be in the field as early as July. Please continue to pray for us and ask the Lord how he would have you help us.
